- Dong Xiao Zhuang, Director of Network Development Division, China Telecom, China

“ BroadcastAsia & CommunicAsia have largely exceeded my expectations! The quality of exhibitors has gotten better this year and I see many promising upgrading products. I intend to spend approximately USD1 million and will further review the vendors I have met before the decision to purchase. I must also add that it is brilliant that BroadcastAsia happens alongside CommunicAsia as that truly provides a one-stop platform for all my sourcing needs. ”
